WHEREAS, Expanding Medicaid in Texas

WHEREAS, these disparities highlight systemic issues within our healthcare system, including but not limited to, access to quality prenatal and postpartum care, racial bias and discrimination in medical treatment, and underlying health conditions exacerbated by social determinants of health; and

WHEREAS, giving more people health insurance would improve health outcomes and help keep the doors open at financially strapped hospitals, especially in rural areas.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Texas has the largest number and percentage of uninsured residents in the United States and we need make Gov. Greg Abbott to Expand Medicaid.
